President's Corner

Times are changing; Frank Suttell is the new Club President. In October, Fred Dent contacted the club with some bad news that he would not be able to fulfill his term as President due to a personnel issue. At the Thanksgiving Rally in Fairview OR, the Board of Directors met to discuss filling the position. The Nominating Committee was activated. Last August I had been asked to run for Club President and declined. At the meeting I was asked again by the Lee Casebeer (Nominating Committee) to be President. This time I agreed. The Board of Directors acted on Lee's nomination and used its executive power to assign me as President.

The Club had a great year with 7 rallies. It started with Mardi Gras North in Woodburn OR and ended with the Thanksgiving Rally. Each of the rallies had its own flavor with raw oysters at Hoodspport to German themed potluck at Gig Harbor. The club had a total participation of 73 coaches at the events.

This coming year is expected to be better than last year. Rod Robbins (VP) is going to coordinate the Rallies. His goal is to have the rallies scheduled so they don't overlap so we have good turnouts. An example of this is the FMCA Rally in Redmond, OR, which is in late August. It finishes just a week before the Long Beach, WA rally on Labor Day weekend. Because there is only a week between the two events and the expected participation in the FMCA rally we have decided to cancel the Long Beach Rally. This will allow a rally to be set up later in September.

Several members have stepped up to be Rally Masters. The challenge is going to get them all coordinated with events already on the books. All rallies need to be coordinated through Rod to be a club sanctioned event and club resources committed.

The next Rally is going to be Mardi Gras North at Hee Hee Illahee in Salem OR on the weekend of 2/27-3/2/14.

Dues are due. You can use the form in this newsletter or request a PayPal invoice by contacting Dana Suttell at fdsutt@wavecable.com. If you have any questions whether you are paid for 2014, just check with her.

Portland Thanksgiving Rally

This year's 2nd annual Portland Thanksgiving Rally started with an evening meet & greet club house gathering. Old friendships were renewed & new ones formed. James & Jaymalea Bray, who live in Portland, attended the evening event to get acquainted with our group. They must have liked what they experienced, because they returned Saturday with a completed membership application. Each couple brought a sweet treat to share for the weekend and Kris made pizzelles.

Thursday morning began early for Kris who prepared the turkey for cooking. Others joined in with the preparation of the afternoon meal by assisting in the club house kitchen and fixing the special side dishes in their own coaches. After the morning juice, coffee & pastries, folks dispersed to their own activities or stayed in the club house for further visiting. Besides the couples from the 6 attending coaches, Carol & Dick Eckhart drove from Corvallis for the day. And, our special guest was Leah Kimball's 90 year old mother, Billie. It was nice to meet one of our club member's family.

Friday and Saturday mornings started again with beverages & sweets. More individual activities ensued after the morning conversations. Activities included geo-caching, shopping and more food preparation. Wayne & Sara Gabel coordinated a silent auction with the proceeds benefiting the Guide Dogs for the Blind. Pat & Candayce Detloft and Teresa & Rod Robbins arrived early afternoon for a Board Members meeting to address recent club business. As mentioned earlier, our newest members, James and Jaymalea joined us for dinner out. For those of us awake after 10:00 PM we were "treated" to rain drops on our coach tops all night long. It was the first rain we had the entire Rally. A Sunday morning farewell potluck filled our stomachs for our trips home. Rally attendees were folks not having other family commitment for the holiday weekend. A Big Thank You for all who helped during the event with meal preparation &/or clean-up activities. Many hands make for light work for all. Site reservations have already been made for next year's event. If you are not planning to be with your immediate families on Thanksgiving 2014, we'd loved to have you join us. Your rally hosts, Kris & Lee Casebeer and Dana & Frank Suttell.

Cathy Lamb has graciously agreed to update, maintain and take care of the NWCC.org website, which previously was done by our former president Fred Dent.

It will take her some time to get familiar with our website so some items may not be on the website just yet, so please be patient and possibly use alternative ways to register for rally's and such.

Mardi Gras North Rally
February 27 - March 2, 2014

Make your plans now to attend the Mardi Gras North Rally at the Hee Hee Illahee RV Resort in Salem. Sibylle & Richard Beck and Bev & Mike Carrick, Rally Masters, have made plans for a fun-filled weekend. The rally fee covers costs for two meals provided during the weekend: Friday night taco bar, and Saturday night Mardi Gras shrimp boil dinner. Also in the plans is a day at the Aurora Colony Museum with a special tour.

Additionally, we will have puzzles, games, or just socializing available. The registration form is included in this newsletter.

*On behalf of all of us at Northwest Country
Coachers we'd like to welcome the following new members.*

We have more New Members

Bob & Suzie Totfdahl joined our club at the Gig Harbor Rally. The Totfdahls call Royal City, in central Washington, as home. Bob & Suzie have a 2000, 40 ft. Intrigue. They are friends of Lee & Carol Irwin. Sewing, hiking, hunting & geocaching are listed as their special interests, with hunting as their favorite activity. We hear that Bob & Suzie have a very interesting Coach interior fabric theme that has to be personally seen to really appreciate. They & the Irwins want to host an eartern Washington, as soon as next summer.

James & Jaymalea Bray joined our club after attending the Wednesday evening meet & greet gathering for the Portland Thanksgiving Rally. The Brays live in southwest Portland. James is a recent retiree from the City of Portland's waste water treatment facilities, where he was an engineer. Jaymalea is preparing to retire from Owens-Corning. The Brays are upgrading their 1998, 36 ft. Intrigue that had belonged to their parents. The Brays list special interests as: Food, Wine, Sake', exploring, Anime', reading & museums and have a goal of "living life to the fullest", with their cat, Cosmo.

It is not too early to start thinking about attending next year's FMCA 90th Family Reunion and Motorhome Showcase Rally being held in Redmond, Oregon, August 13 – 16, 2014.

There will be more details on that event from Don Schleuse later.

Prior to the FMCA event, NWCCers is having a pre-rally at The Bend/Sister Garden RV Resort (formally the KOA park) a few miles east of Sisters, Oregon on Hwy 20. The resort is very much improved since it was acquired by the new owner, who is a garden lover. The dates of our Rally are August 8th & 9th, a Friday & Saturday. This resort is the Best RV Resort in central Oregon. If you want to come early for a longer stay, let the reservations person know that you are with the Northwest Country Coachers for the length of stay discount. There will be more details on the event as we get closer. To view the resort's web site go to www.bendsistersgardenrvresort.com.

We look forward to seeing you next August in central Oregon.

RECIPES

BREAD PUDDING

6 eggs
4 c. milk which includes 1 can of evaporated milk
1 c. sugar
1 - 2 tsp. vanilla
3/4 tsp. cinnamon
Small dash of salt
Several pieces of thick sliced bread or egg bread

Mix all but bread together and pour into a large baking dish. Place bread on top and submerge to saturate. It will float back up but that's OK.

Additional cinnamon/sugar mix may be sprinkled over the top. Bake at 250 degrees in a water bath on the bottom rack of the oven until a knife inserted in center comes out clean, about 2 hours. A water bath consists of placing the baking dish in a large pan of water which comes at least 1/2 way up the sides of the baking dish. Be VERY careful removing the pans from the oven. Enjoy!!!

Recipe Submitted by Sarah Gabel

New lifetime warranty set to revolutionize the RV market

November 18, 2013
By Greg Gerber

STRONGSVILLE, Ohio — NWAN, an affiliate of National Automotive Experts (NAE), has been quietly rolling out a new warranty program that promises to rock the RV industry in many ways with the introduction of a lifetime RV warranty called RV Warranty Forever.™

The RV Warranty Forever program is included on every new motorhome or towable sold by RV dealers who are granted exclusive markets. Dealers also have the option of adding the RV Warranty Forever program to gently used RVs which are current year or no more than two model years old.

The program remains in place as long as the buyer owns the unit. There is no deductible, and it covers 100 percent of parts and labor expense anywhere in the United States and Canada.

“Our company started in 1996 serving the auto industry and we have been transitioning toward the RV industry for several years,” Kelly Price, president of NAE, told RV Daily Report. “A few years ago, one of our clients who markets to automotive and RV dealers approached us about offering the exclusive Warranty Forever program in the RV industry. He felt it would revolutionize the industry, and we agreed.”

NAE has a history of game-changing product introductions in the automotive market. It caught everyone by surprise in 2001 when it introduced a seven-year, 100,000-mile warranty when manufacturers were offering only three-year, 36,000-mile power train coverage. In 2005, when auto manufacturers started offering five-year and ten-year, 100,000-mile powertrain coverage, NAE took the terms and mileage limitations off of the program and branded it Warranty Forever.

The RV Warranty Forever program is backed by Assurant Solutions (American Bankers Insurance Company of Florida) and provides basic coverage within the components listed below:

- Suspension
- Brakes

Water System

- Heating and Air Conditioning
- Kitchen Center
- LP Gas System

Manual Leveling Jacks

Because NAE is a full product administrator, dealers can also offer the company’s extended service contract plans, paint and fabric protection, windshield coverage, as well as other products.

What’s the catch?

“One of the most common questions dealers get about the warranty is, ‘What’s the catch?’ The answer is, there isn’t one, nor are there any gimmicks,” said Price. “The warranty comes with the unit and buyers don’t have to do anything to ensure protection as soon as they drive off the dealership lot.”

All customers need to do is maintain the RVs based on manufacturer recommended intervals outlined in the agreement, Price explained. “Being able to offer a lifetime warranty is a tremendous marketing and retention program for RV dealers,” said Price. “For consumers it is even better because it extends the 12 or 24-month factory warranty to as long as they own the RV. It is a powerful marketing and service retention tool.”

Available at select dealerships only

NAE is offering lifetime warranties through a very small select group of RV dealers — often just one to four dealers in every state, Price explained.

The company worked with major RV manufacturers to identify the top-selling dealers in every state, and then quietly approached the dealers at the Elkhart Open House and again at the RV Dealers Association expo in Las Vegas.

Many markets are already taken, but NAE is opening up the program to all dealers in hopes of having the entire country covered by the end of the year, said Price. They are looking for a total of 70 to 85 dealers nationwide to offer the program.

“We have offered the same exclusivity to auto dealers, but in a more narrowly-defined geographic market. For example, auto dealers have exclusivity for 30 to 40 miles,” said Price. “But, in the RV industry, customers are more willing to travel for the right RV and dealers will routinely ship units to customers, so we wanted to give our dealer partners more breathing room by expanding their exclusive market.

“even though he has to buy a policy for every RV on his lot — including good condition used RVs under 2 years old — he thinks it will pay back dividends to his company in three ways.

Continued.....

First, as a competitive advantage in the sales process. Second, by making money from customers required to ensure their RVs are maintained according to factory recommendations in order to keep the warranty active.

“Customers will have to do basic maintenance once per year, but NAE does a great job in contacting consumers a few months in advance to notify them of the required service,” he explained. “That gives us a chance to serve the customer and to make money while helping to keep their RVs in good condition.”

The third benefit to his dealership occurs when his salespeople can sell customers additional coverage that isn’t covered by the lifetime warranty, he said.

“We can still upsell customers on other coverage, like paint and fabric protection, extended service contracts which cover components like slide-out motors, hydraulic jacks, and much more and emergency road service, that isn’t included in the lifetime warranty,” said Bender. “Offering a lifetime warranty shouldn’t deter customers from buying a service contract to cover the other items, especially on larger RVs.”

RV General Store also rolled out the product at a recent RV show, and Bender said his dealership can attribute three sales in the first week specifically to the lifetime warranty.

“We had a couple in today to close on a unit. They saw the banner when they were shopping and told us that a lifetime warranty brought them back,” he added. “It’s a new product for us, and time will tell if it will be successful. But, it is already looking quite promising.”

Training the sales team to promote the features and benefits of the warranty was easy, Bender explained. “The night before our show started, the company came in and trained our employees. Our team did a great job introducing it to customers the next day at the RV show.”

Both Bender and Meadows said that the ability to offer something like this as the only dealership in their state or region is a big advantage — and one they encourage other RV dealers to explore.

“We had no hesitation jumping into this program,” said Meadows. “It’s a great thing for our customers. Any time we can do something great for our customers, we’re going to be all over it.”

For more information about the RV Warranty Forever program, dealers can call 877.222.1645 and ask for David Neuenschwander or visit www.rvwarrantyforever.com.
